The title of the project, placed at the top of the HTML page uses the "Bukhari Script" font conveying warmth and elegance.

Auntie

Niece

Games

An empty space between 'Auntie' and 'Games' was primarily designed for the company logo.

First HTML home page design, the background colour later changed to beige to create a sense of liveliness

Auntie Niece Games

The position of the main title transformed to middle.

Some features such as a chain of flags and maps added to convey the geographic theme of the game

Each Game

The gap between the chain of flags and the page is considered an ideal place for the placement of the 'About Us'

What country's flag is this?
